Agenda

Design and Management of the Lean Law Firm.

How Can Less Paper = More Money, More Freedom, and More Opportunity?

Find out why this economic climate has opened up new opportunities for the small firm practitioner by smart use of technology. Kane Bennett of Raymond & Bennett, and Doug LeMasurier of Northeast Computer, will present a seminar on the design, start up, and management of a fully digital law firm.

The presentation is designed to be informal and responsive to the audience but general topics will include how technology can help small firms save on overhead costs, increase efficiency, and compete with traditional law firm models. The seminar will include practical tips you can use right away in your small or solo law practice.
